Aim of Unit:

This unit aims to focus on the planning and creation of web concepts and multimedia. It is expected that during the course each student will develop a cohesive, functional and attractive multimedia presentation. Project development is undertaken using currently available authoring software. Key issues related to the presentation and development of multimedia projects for use in web and non-web environments are explored. The goal of the subject is to introduce students to both the theory and concepts of World Wide Web and multimedia research and practice.

Unit Outline:

- Comprehend tools for the World Wide Web.
- Designing for the World Wide Web.
- Understanding how the Internet Works.
- Identify the issues relating to media such as perception, representation, presentation, storage and transmission.
- Develop a conceptual understanding of the audio components of media and its production, representation and processing.
- Develop a conceptual understanding of the image components of media (images/video) and their production, colour representation, compression and processing.
- Examine and develop the ability to quantify the basic computer architecture and operating system requirements for multimedia.

Mode of Delivery:

Two hours lecture per week.

One hour tutorial per week.

Unit Assessment:

Assignments	20 %
Mid-Semester Test	20 %
Final Examination	60 %

Assessment Requirements:

Students must receive 50% or more for each part of Unit Assessment in order to pass the subject.

Student Workload:

Students will have 3 hours per week face-to-face learning during semester.

Students are expected to work at least 4 hours per week out of class.
